

It Is All Personality

Across

2. The pattern of enduring characteristics that produce consistency and individuality in a given person.

6. This personality contains memories, knowledge, beliefs, feelings, urges, drives, and instincts of which one is not aware.

9. A defense mechanism for when a student refuses to believe that he has flunked a course.

10. She is sometimes called the first feminist psychologist.

11. The primary defense mechanism in which unacceptable or unpleasant id impulses are pushed back into the unconscious.

12. He developed psychoanalytic theory in the early 1900's.

Down

1. A neo-Freud who rejected Freud's view of primary importance of unconscious sexual urges.

3. This process of wanting to be like another person as much as possible by imitating behavior and adopting similar beliefs and values.

4. Universal symbolic representations of a particular person, object, or experience (good and evil) according to Carl Jung.

5. This personality is the final personality structure to develop according to Sigmund Freud.

7. This personality sole purpose is to reduce tension created by primitive drives related to hunger, sex, aggression, and irrational impulses.

8. He proposed that the primary human motivation is a striving for superiority as in a quest for self-improvement and perfection.

13. How many developmental stages is there for psychosexual stages.

14. This personality provides a buffer between the id and the outside world.