

JEOPARDY

Across

- 2. to form an opinion about something without knowing all the facts
- 4. a composition imitating or burlesquing another, usually serious, piece of work
- 9. very bad or unpleasant.
- 10. when the words or acts of a character carry a meaning unperceived by himself but understood by the audience
- 18. to make somebody feel ashamed or stupid and lose the respect of other people.
- 19. Cartoon drawings that exaggerate or distort physical features
- 20. When one outcome is expected, but the opposite happens
- 21. a person's continued support for a political party, religion, or facts.
- 23. Socratic Irony Socrates pretended ignorance of a subject in order to draw knowledge out of his students by a question and answer device

- 25. to damage somebody's body very severely

- 27. extreme desire for wealth.
- 29. a cupboard-closet or small room in a house, used for storing food.
- 30. Downplaying or saying less about something than is appropriate
- 31. simply an inversion of meaning

Down

- 1. the fact of being rude or not having good taste.
- 3. a sharply mocking or contemptuous remark.
- 5. an opinion or idea that is not based on definite knowledge and is formed by guessing.
- 6. exciting laughter through exaggerated, improbable situations
- 7. the state of having or owing something
- 8. Depends on a discrepancy between purpose and results
- 11. any creature with four feet

- 12. to suggest or accept that something is true so that it can be used as the basis for a theory.
- 13. causing harm or damage deliberately and for no acceptable reason
- 14. a person who kills a famous or important person for money or for political reasons.
- 15. to state officially that you are no longer going to keep, a title, position.
- 16. the natural qualities of a person's character
- 17. the quality of something, especially a person's ability
- 22. a feeling that prevents you from doing something that you think may be morally wrong.
- 24. Language that exaggerates
- 26. grateful to force somebody to do something.
- 28. quarreling, fighting, coarse with, horseplay, noisy singing, boisterous conduct, trickery, clownishness, drunkenness, slap-stick.