

Name: _____

Date: _____

J, K, and Q Vocab

Across

6. Extremely joyful, happy
 9. to control, suppress, pacify, quiet
 10. Praise for an achievement
 12. (a) commonplace, ordinary (b) occurring daily
 13. an allotted number of something
 15. The act of placing two things next to each other for implicit comparison.

16. a line or sequence of people, vehicles, or tasks waiting for something
 17. the minimum number of members of a group (usually political or business)

18. a perplexing irresolvable state

Down

1. Charming, unique, pleasing old-fashioned
 2. whiny, complaining

3. a messy, difficult situation

4. Fate, fortune

5. idealistic, impractical

7. Having or exercising sound judgment

8. Extreme, fanatical nationalism or patriotism

11. The solemn sound of a bell, often indicating a death

14. Cynical about, tired of, or dulled to something due to overexposure to it.