

Jacksonian Democracy Key Terms

Across

- 2. Henry Clay and John Quincy Adams made the _____, which led to John Quincy Adams winning the 1824 election
- 6. In this court case, the Cherokee Nation was considered a “Domestic Dependent nation” and no action was taken in the case, as the court ruled that they didn’t have jurisdiction over the land.
- 10. Andrew Jackson was supported by the _____, these were also known as farmers or merchants/traders.
- 12. Big planters and wealthy businessmen were supported by the _____. This political party also favored a strong central government and they supported tariffs and humanitarian reforms
- 15. Andrew Jackson created the _____ because South Carolina tried to nullify the Tariffs of 1828 and 1832.
- 17. In a display of _____ Jackson moved the Natives to the West from their homes in the East because it is what he believed would be best for them, and he didn’t bother to think about whether or not the natives would like it.

- 18. _____ was accused of adultery because her divorce to her last husband hadn’t been completed.
  - 19. _____ vetoed the bill to recharter the Bank of the United States because he believed that it was unconstitutional.
  - 20. _____’s presidency was considered a part of Jacksonian-Democracy because Andrew Jackson was very involved with his presidency, and provided support and guidance.
- Down
- 1. The _____ gave the Cherokee money and in exchange for their lands.
  - 3. The five “civilized” tribes were the Cherokee, the _____, the Muscogee, the Chickasaw, and the Seminole.
  - 4. Many Natives were killed during this forced march, others were upset that they had to leave behind their homes.
  - 5. John C. Calhoun led the _____ against the Tariff of Abominations and the Tariff of 1832.

- 7. _____, masculine privilege, and racial privilege are closely linked to Jacksonian Democracy.
- 8. As a result of the _____ nearly half of all banks closed and unemployment rates went up.
- 9. Cherokees adopted a system of settled agriculture and private property in order to _____
- 11. _____ is the reason why the election of 1828 was considered so controversial. People thought it was unfair, and immoral.
- 13. John C. Calhoun was opposed to the _____, and thought it was unconstitutional.
- 14. _____ was the speaker of the house during the 1824 election.
- 16. The _____ opposed the Bank of the United States and the spoils system.