

Name: _____

Date: _____

Jessica's Vocab Quiz

Across

2. I see a _____ individual has donated a significant amount in memory of my mother.

7. The teacher was excessively explaining the lesson, almost in a _____ way.

9. She concluded from his tone that he was _____ with her and wished to end the conversation.

10. The _____ student was the class valedictorian, but sometimes seen as a know-it-all.

12. He made a mental note to send a piece of jewelry to her hotel room to _____ guilt over the promised phone call that would never happen.

13. After his mother died, the boy was _____ and always looked depressed.

Down

1. An example of _____ is for a worker to become well liked by being kind to his coworkers.

3. He was at first _____ and embarrassed in speaking, but gradually overcame these difficulties, and was heard with much attention and deference, especially when he addressed the House on economic questions.

4. The horsemen were splendidly _____ in riding for long distances into the heart of a hostile country, without support, striking some terrific blows, and then returning rapidly beyond reach of pursuit.

5. The snide remark was _____ and made the other man angry enough to yell at him.

6. Her goal was to _____ her peers and become the top of her class.

8. His eyes were twinkling with mirth and his lips were twisted into a _____ smile.

11. The _____ fondness she displayed, which was excessively sweet, was what, in the end, drove me away.