

Jobs

Across

2. the ability to do something well
 4. a meeting where questions are asked about suitability for a job
 9. the official completion of a course of study
 10. a person who gives verbal or written support about a job seeker's character & ability

11. a formal written request for a job

12. knowledge or practical skill gained in a period of time in a profession

Down

1. a short persuasive speech to sell yourself
 3. a statement that details the specific duties of a job

5. a short description of a person on a resume

6. another word for a job or role in a company

7. a document that lists personal information when applying for a job

8. a person who applies for a role and who is interviewed

Word Bank

experience

job description

position

referee

candidate

elevator pitch

resume

application

skill

profile

qualification

interview