

Johanna D. Garcia

Across

2. A branch of Mahayana Buddhism practiced in the Tibetan diaspora that incorporates deity yoga, mantras, mudras (hand gestures), and mandalas to achieve awakening.
5. The philosophical part of the Vedas
6. Belief that all life was created by God
8. Spiritual teacher
9. An occupational category

11. Believing in one's received traditions as completely and exclusively true

15. Physical embodiment of the divine

Down

1. Sitting meditation, in Zen schools
3. Intuitive knowledge of spiritual realities
4. Renunciate spiritual seeker

7. The second morning prayer of Sikhs, written by Guru Gobind Singh.

10. A Sikh temple.

12. A Chinese and Japanese school emphasizing that all things have Buddha-nature, which can only be grasped when one escapes from the intellectual mind.

13. Gem The Buddha, the Dharma, and the Sangha.

14. The symbols worn by Khalsa members