

Name: _____

Date: _____

Journalism

Across

2. a person, written article, book, song, video, or film from which to get information
 3. This type of question doesn't let the interviewee to open up since it just gives the option to the interviewee to say "yes" or "no"
 6. These are photos of people receiving awards or diplomas, cutting ribbons or passing out cheques. They just do the 'handshake' pose and smile at the camera
 10. material for a newspaper or magazine article
 11. Most journalists will write a draft of an article before submitting it. After completing this, they will edit their own work for content and mistakes before submitting it to the editor
 12. To cover a particular genre of journalism
 15. these questions encourage the person to talk more
 18. to write the name of source you information when using a quote, of book, or a part of any copyrighted work

20. A source of information for Journalists

21. the way that words are put together to make sentences

23. a person who writes, edits, or reports for a newspaper, magazine or news broadcast

24. communicating near and far using radio and television

25. the business or practice of writing and producing news media

Down

1. These questions try to lead an interviewee in a certain direction

4. sentences at the bottom of a photo that describe what happened to it

5. The editor of a newspaper, magazine, or etc. that sets a deadline

7. the first and most important sentence of the story. It sets up what the story is going to be about

8. your name, which is printed before/after an article

9. the process of reviewing a news story, revising the writing and checking it for mistakes before it is published/broadcasted

13. An in-depth look at what's going on behind the news. it gets into the lives of people and tries to explain why and how a trend developed. This does not have to be tied to a current news event or a breaking story

14. to produce or release a written work for the public to see or hear

16. a newspaper article written by, or on behalf of, an editor, especially one giving an opinion on a well known issue

17. The gathering of reporters around a person who is important to a particular story.

19. a person who edits material for publication or broadcast

22. the study of classes and functions of words, how words are said, and how words relate in a sentence