

Julius Caesar/Shakespeare Preview

Across

1. Julius Caesar was a very powerful _____ of Rome.
6. The name of Shakespeare's "wooden-O" theater built with his acting company in 1599
8. A rebirth
14. Spectators at plays would throw rotten _____ to show their disapproval.
16. In Shakespeare's time, sets were lacking in scenery, props, curtains, and artificial _____.
17. Later in life, Shakespeare published a book of _____, or love poems.
19. Caesar first came to power after illustrating his prowess in _____ battles.

20. Shakespeare was married to Anne _____, 8 years his elder.

Down

2. Sub-genre of drama in which the play ends in disaster for the main character(s)
3. True or False: Only upperclass people were allowed to attend theater productions in Shakespeare's time.
4. Young _____ played the women's roles in plays during Shakespeare's time.
5. The time during which Shakespeare lived was known as the _____ Era due to the monarch's name.
7. The name of Shakespeare's acting group: The Lord _____ Men
9. Unlike novels or short stories, plays do not have a _____ in control of the story.

10. Caesar's colleagues resented the fact he had too much _____.

11. Julius Caesar was assassinated on the _____ of March, a.k.a. March 15.
12. A genre of literature written to be acted out.
13. True or False: Shakespeare only became famous after his death.
15. Name of the town in which Shakespeare was born: _____-upon-Avon
18. The tragic hero will always have a tragic _____, or personality trait, that hinders them or ultimately leads to their demise.