

KICKASS ELMHURST CNAs

Across

2. A blood condition involving too much sugar
 3. A federal law which applies to all 50 states
 5. Being unable to respond to stimuli
 6. A health care agency or program for persons who are dying
 13. Intentionally attempting or threatening to touch a person's body without the person's consent
 14. Saying or doing something to trick, fool, or deceive a person
 16. Separating the person from others against his or her will, keeping the person to a certain area, keeping the person away from his or her room without consent

18. The process by which a person receives and understands information about a treatment or procedure and is able to decide if he or she will receive it.
 20. The official recognition by a state that standards or requirements have been met
 21. The most important thing at the time
 23. Something necessary or desired for maintaining life and mental well-being
 24. At the stages of grief, you see your patient crying and not saying much in what stage is that person?
 25. A sudden illness from which the person is expected to recover

Down

1. Any lost, absent, or impaired physical or mental function
 4. To trouble, torment, offend, or worry a person by one's behavior or comments

7. Trusting others with personal and private information
 8. The care of the body after death
 9. A written guide about the person's nursing care
 10. A person with the legal right to act on the patient's or resident's behalf when he or she cannot do so for himself or herself
 11. . When menstruation stops and menstrual cycle ends; at least 1 year without a menstrual period
 12. The study of the aging process
 15. An excessive flow of blood
 17. A federal program for persons 65 years of age or older
 19. . Things a person tells you about that you cannot observe through your senses
 22. Someone who supports or promotes the needs and interest of another person