

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Key Terms Review

Across

2. High life expectancy is an example of a _____

8. An igloo is a home that is based on a country's _____

9. A mountain has _____ population density

10. If a country has a low literacy rate, it will also have a _____ GDP

11. A map that has a map key about elevation gives us information on _____

13. Flat lines that go across _____

14. Literacy, life expectancy, and GDP are used to calculate _____

15. Unfair/ unjust treatment/ unequal treatment are all forms of _____

17. When a religion believes in one God, they are called _____

19. Ruled by a King and Queen _____

21. What is an example of of high elevation _____

23. Letters, interviews, diary entries are all examples of _____

24. A monarchy is an example of a _____ form of government

25. The Apartheid happend in which country? _____

Down

1. When a religion believes in multiple Gods, they are called _____

3. The United States is an example of a _____

4. What do Judaism, Christianity, and Islam all have in common? _____

5. How did MLK want people to express their anger? _____

6. In a democracy, who has the most power? _____

7. Magazines and textbooks are examples of _____

12. A plain has _____ population density

16. On an HDI chart, which column tells us if the population is growing fast or slow? _____

18. non-renewable resouce _____

20. A democracy is a _____ form of government

22. Maps that are about oil production, climate, or religion are considered to be _____

Word Bank

thematic monotheistic
low monotheistic
mountain

Monarchy Primary source polytheistic Democracy
peaceful protests

HDI high oil oppression
low

pull factor climate latitude Unlimited
Fertility Rate

People
South Africa
Geography Limited
secondary source