

Name: _____

Kines 127

Across

3. the most potent of all memory lanes, it processes emotionally charged events
4. Movement should be used as an
8. The key word in transition time is
9. memory lane that contains information that becomes automatic and readily available
10. type of memory where the 5 different memory lanes store information

Down

1. Using a whistle is effective for getting the students
2. memory lane that represents word meaning by using discussion and reading
5. In the first couple weeks of class the teacher should define
6. memory lane that refers to location memory by creating pictures of where we were when an event occurred
7. What is the highest priority when moving students in classroom is?