

Name: _____

Date: _____

Kiwiana

Across

3. A 100% water-proof woollen overcoat. Popular amongst farmers due to it being warm in winter, cool in summer
4. Iconic wooden child's toy
9. The polished shell of the native shellfish, turned into jewellery and souvenirs or ashtrays.
13. A large chocolate chip cookie often sold individually and typically heated up before being consumed
14. A light and fluffy meringue dessert named after the ballet dancer
15. National rugby union team
17. Popular sauce especially when served in a plastic container shaped like a tomato
18. Name of a popular New Zealand cookbook
20. A popular soft drink.

21. Fruit from a vine originating in China but selectively bred by New Zealand horticulturalists to obtain egg-sized fruit with green or gold flesh. In New Zealand it was originally called Chinese gooseberry
22. Most famous native bird- its stylised image or shape frequently appears on things associated with New Zealand.
23. Plain vanilla ice cream with added small, solid lumps of toffee.

Down

1. native plant; its stylised image or shape is displayed on army insignia and by many of the national sports teams.
2. Confectionery made with a pineapple flavoured centre covered in chocolate
5. Traditional Māori war dance, now widely used as a challenge by sports teams

6. Calf length rubber boots, usually in black with a red strip at the top
7. A horse from New Zealand, who won many prestigious races in Australia and North America.
8. A popular cartoon strip by Murray Ball
10. confection of marshmallow covered in chocolate, in the shape of a fish.
11. Popular beach footwear with a bit of sole but very little else.
12. Method of cooking using heated rocks buried underground in a pit oven
16. A cookie/biscuit which contains cornflakes with a soft biscuit base and a walnut on top
19. A dark and salty spread made from yeast extract.