

LA Vocab crossword

Across

- 1. A character who changes significantly overtime in a story
- 4. A problem or issue a character has in a story within themselves
- 8. Directly revealing characteristics about a character
- 10. Two unlike things being compared to show a similar connection between the two
- 11. A refrence in a story to osomething in real life that can be recognized by most people

- 12. When the audience knows something the chracters in a story don't
- 13. When someone says something but means the exact opposite
- 14. A type of figurative language that means nothing of what's understood
- 15. The hero or "good guy" in a story (usually the main character)

Down

- 2. Revealing traits about through chracters speech and actions using refrence

- 3. When the actions in a situation cause the exact opposite of what was intended to happen
- 5. A character who does not change overtime in a story
- 6. Argument that goes on in a story between two or more characters
- 7. The villian or "bad guy" in a story
- 9. The message or meaning behind a story