

Name: _____

Date: _____

LESSON FIVE - WORLDVIEW

Across

- 2. most North Americans are strongly oriented towards this
- 6. set of feelings and attitude about the world
- 8. past, present and future
- 10. fundamental values that provide the basis for social behavior
- 11. a chance of harm
- 13. pioneer researcher into the nature of world views

- 14. not having life
- 15. the arts, beliefs, and habits considered a characteristic of a particular community
- 16. gods now remote from earthly activities and concerns
- 17. connected

Down

- 1. mythological
- 3. everything that is beyond nature

- 4. process of learning to live with others
- 5. an effort to obtain something wanted by others
- 7. the act of working together
- 9. the quality or state of being different
- 12. to express in words

Word Bank

cooperation culture distinct socialization

risk
world view
time
future

supernatural Redfield competition

otiose deities interralated inanimate

core values
supernatural
verbalize