

LICE

1. Infestation with lice is known as _____.
 2. Itching is caused by sensitivity to _____.
 3. A special fine-toothed lice comb is known as a _____.
 4. Lice is more common in people with _____ hair.
 5. Head lice survive by biting the _____ and sucking blood through it.
 6. Empty egg sacs that are white and shiny are known as _____.
 7. Treatment for lice is known as _____.
 8. Lice do not carry _____ but do cause irritation.
 9. Head lice are spread by _____.
 10. Lice can affect persons of any age but are more common in _____ because of increased likelihood of direct contact.
 11. The only real "symptom" is finding a live _____ in the hair.
 12. _____ to head lice preparations is increasingly common.
 13. Treatment should not be started until at least one live, _____ louse has been found.
- A. Direct head-to-head contact
 - B. Delousing
 - C. Nits
 - D. Children
 - E. Lice saliva
 - F. Moving
 - G. Disease
 - H. Nit Comb
 - I. Resistance
 - J. Louse
 - K. Long
 - L. Scalp
 - M. Pediculosis