

LIMRA Pride Month

Across

2. As of 2019 is the first Person of Color to lead the Human Rights Campaign, and the the first openly gay counsel to New York Governor Andrew Cuomo.

4. Civil Rights activist and author of "Giovanni's Room."

7. "He's here to recruit you." Sean Penn starred in a biopic about his brave activism for gay rights.

9. Outspoken Trans activist and central figure of the Stonewall Riots.

11. Trans activist and survivor of the Stonewall riots & Attica Correctional Facility.

13. The "Grandfather of Vogue."

14. Actor, famous for starring in "Juno", just came out as Trans in 2021.

15. The first openly gay athlete to play in any of the North American Pro Sports Leagues.

Down

1. LGBTQ & Civil rights activist who was also a key advisor to Dr Martin Luther King Jr.

3. Trans actress & advocate who appeared on Orange is the New Black.

5. Co-founded the National Black Justice Foundation, and helped to organize the first meeting between a sitting president and leaders of the LGBTQ community.

6. African American choreographer and founder of one of the most famous and prestigious dance companies in the world.

8. The "Mother" of all Drag Queens.

10. The National Organization for Women rejected her for being a lesbian. She fought back, and still fights for Lesbians & Trans women's rights today.

12. Chicago's first Black & openly LGBTQ mayor!