

LINCOLN DOUGLASS DEBATE

Across

2. characterized by, based on, or done by fraud.

9. a territorial division

10. to look down on with contempt or aversion

11. of or relating to government, a government, or the conduct of government.

12. an assembly or council usually possessing high deliberative and legislative functions.

14. the act or process of disseminating or spreading something.

16. one that speaks; one who uses a language.

17. following in time, order, or place

Down

1. one that favors or supports a republican form of government

3. the basic principles and laws of a nation, state, or social group that determine the powers and duties of the government

4. one who aspires to or is nominated or qualified for an office, membership, or award

5. the act or action of coming together and meeting.

6. serving as a basis supporting existence or determining essential structure

7. over or through a wide area

8. government by the people.

13. to appoint or propose for appointment to an office or place.

15. submission to a dominating influence