

Name: _____

Date: _____

"LIT" QUIZZ

Across

- 4. Over-exaggeration used to emphasise a point or create humour.
- 5. When the opposite of what is said is implied/the opposite of what is expected occurs.
- 7. Used to convey bad news in a kind and sensitive manner.
- 8. A figure of speech comparing two or more things using "as" or "like"
- 9. When the opposite of what is said is implied with the intention of hurting or humiliation.

Word Bank

PUN
ONOMATOPOEIA
METAPHOR IRONY

EUPHEMISM
ASSONANCE
PERSONIFICATION

SARCASM
HYPERBOLE
SIMILE

- 10. Repetition of vowel sounds.

Down

- 1. A figure of speech in which human qualities are given to non living things or ideas.
- 2. Direct comparison without the use of as or like.
- 3. Words that imitate and reproduce real life sounds and actions.
- 6. Clever play on words. Wherein two or more meanings are implied.