

Name: _____ Date: _____

LPN IV Medications Quiz

- | | |
|---|-----------------|
| 1. Giving this potent diuretic too quickly can result in ototoxicity. | A. Ondansetron |
| 2. Giving this antiemetic may cause EKG changes, including prolonged QT interval. | B. Furosemide |
| 3. This common NSAID is given for pain and duration of treatment should not exceed 5 days. | C. Flumazenil |
| 4. This proton pump inhibitor can be given via IV push over 2 minutes or mixed and given via infusion over at least 15minutes. | D. Pantoprazole |
| 5. This medication will reverse all sedative effects of benzodiazepines. | E. Naloxone |
| 6. This benzodiazepine must be diluted immediately before given with an equal amount of diluent. It is stored in the refrigerator. | F. 4 mg |
| 7. This anticoagulant is a high-risk medication. Read labels carefully and have a second person verify you have the correct mediation and dose. | G. Lorazepam |
| 8. This medication will reverse the effects of narcotic overdose. | H. Heparin |
| 9. Up to how many mg of Hydromorphone can the LPN give per dose? | I. Ketorolac |
| 10. Up to how many mg of Morphine can the LPN give per dose? | J. 2 mg |