

Name: _____

Date: _____

Lamb to the Slaughter Vocabulary

Across

2. After realizing what her boyfriend was doing as he got on one knee and proposed to her she could not find any words to describe how she was feeling except blissful.
4. Her wife was bewildered by the fact that she and her husband had just received more than two million dollars in their bank account, not knowing her husband had spent five years trying to earn money through the winning of the lottery and had finally won and received two million dollars.
7. After numerous amounts of tardies she had to sit in on a lecture regarding the importance of behaving punctually.
8. She had thought it to be peculiar that her fiancé would offer the idea of going to Greece for their honeymoon knowing their current financial status.
9. After winning the lottery and gaining over two million dollars in his bank account he started thinking about all ways he could luxuriate himself through the abundant amount of cash he had just received.

10. Her mother was frantic trying to get all of the wedding plans sorted out with short notice.

Down

1. The engineers made sure to focus on the durability of each exterior wall as he created the blueprints for his beach house in Florida so that when a hurricane was to come, the studs of the house would stand placid and able to be rebuilt.
3. The hidden cove near the shoreline offered a tranquil environment for the couple's picnic.
5. The psychiatrist was so experienced in her studies that she was able to see through someone and their thoughts and feelings as if they were a translucent piece of glass about to shatter under the pressures of the world.
6. Her soon-to-be mother-in-law insisted on paying for custom wedding rings for both her and her groom made of congealed gold.