

Name: _____

Date: _____

Land Biomes

Across

- 6. a relationship in which two different organisms live in close association with each other
- 7. ecological relationship in which two or more organisms depend on the same limited resource
- 9. term for a large and diverse group of organisms
- 10. a species that colonizes an uninhabited area and that starts a process of succession

Down

- 1. an interaction between two or more living things in which they are said to work together
- 2. the replacement of one type of community by another at a single location over a period of time
- 3. a relationship between two species
- 4. the number and variety of organisms in a given area during a specific period of time
- 5. the highest level of organization
- 8. the lowest level of organization