

Language Arts

Across

3. An explanation of observations or events supported with evidence and based on knowledge gained or investigations.
5. Half of the earth
6. Two or more things affecting each other.
7. A quantity to be divided
10. An organized repeated spread of ideas or features.
11. Using one or more of your senses to gather information and take notes of what occurs.
13. The distance East or West of the Prime Meridian

14. A statement of what will happen next in a sequence of events.

18. A possible explanation or educated guess for an observation that can that can be tested by investigations.
19. A rule that describes a pattern in nature
20. A reason an author might write a text. The three main reasons are to persuade. Inform, entertain.

Down

1. A number multiplied
2. Comparing what you already know with the information you are given in order to decide whether you agree with it.

4. The directions north, east, south and west

8. A logical explanation of an observation
9. The distance North or South of the equator
12. The study of human and nonhuman features of earth
15. A main idea or underlying meaning of a piece of literature. It may be stated directly or indirectly.
16. The result of multiplication
17. How many equal groups a number is divided into