$\qquad$

Language Features

1. A word used to add detail to a noun
2. the first letter of a wqord and is repeated in words that follow
3. repetition of the same vowel sound
4. repetition of the s sound
5. a sentence starting with a verb and gives a command to someone
6. language spoken by people from a particular area
7. when text uses a pronoun 'you' 'your' 'we'
8. words used to deliberately provoke an emotional reaction
9. something that you can prove is true
10. taste, sight, hearing, touch, smell
11. exaggerating something for literary pruposes
12. words that create a clear picture in your head
13. the humourous or sarcastic use of words or ideas usuallyimplying the opposite
14. listing 3 things to create a specific effect
15. a phrase used to describe something but is not literal
16. a word which names a person, object
17. a word that sounds like the noise/action it is describing
18. where two words normally not associated are brought together
19. a word that sounds like an emotion but you can't touch it
20. something that you believew to be true but may not actually be true
21. using 'I' 'she' 'they'
22. attributing human qualiti to a thing or idea
23. posing a question that doesn't require an anwer
A. adjective
B. metaphor
C. opinion
D. dialect
E. onomatopoeia
F. noun
G. direct order
H. assonance
I. oxymoron
J. simile
K. alliteration
L. hyperbole/exaggeration
M. vivid imagery
N. statistics
O. fact
P. irony
Q. personal pronoun
R. five senses
S. personification
T. rhetorical question
U. direct address
V. a doing word
W. sibilance
24. a phrase which establishes similarity between two things to emphasise the a point
25. facts or figures
26. verb
X. abstract noun
Y. emotive language
Z. list of $3 /$ listing
