

Latin America Vocabulary

Across

- 1. Natives who came to an area that have been dominated by people that came later.
- 2. Growing crops for sale.
- 6. When one country rules over another country usually to benefit from them.
- 8. A crop that is grown to be sold, not to be eaten by the farmer.
- 10. An amount of land not equal to everyone in the country.

- 11. A trade agreement that allows a lot of trade to go through the United States for free.(no tax)
- 12. A country that is surrounded all by land.
- 13. A resource that can be used fast and replaced quickly.
- 14. Clearing trees from a forest

Down

- 3. A resource that cannot be repaced once it is gone.
- 4. Hiring someone from a different country come to do a job that once took place within the company.
- 5. A leader who governs without any say from his people.
- 7. A little shack typically crowded with not much clean water.
- 9. Level of comfort found in a country.