

Latin Test 1 Practice

Across

3. The _____ and vocative cases match the nominative in all neuter nouns.
7. Translate amēmus as a volitive subjunctive. [no spaces]
10. Put credo, crēdere, crēdidī, crēditum in the imperfect active indicative, 2nd person singular
11. The optative subjunctive expresses a _____.
12. Give the first principle part of the Latin word that means "to find."
15. Which noun case is used for possession?

16. Put dōnum, -i N in the accusative plural.

17. With which type of subjunctive is utinam used?

Down

1. "May she run!" is an example of which type of subjunctive?
2. What gender is the noun gēns, gentis? Write out the whole word.
4. The volitive subjunctive expresses a _____.
[Two words, no space]
5. _____ is the ablative of instrument/means used with people or objects?

6. Which principle part does the perfect passive tense use?

8. Put exspectō, exspectāre, expectāvī, expectātum into the present active subjunctive, 3rd person singular

9. Which voice (active or passive) is the phrase "it was being thrown"?

13. Which conjugation (first, second, third, or fourth) is the verb colō, colere, coluī, cultum?

14. Is the ablative of agent used with people or objects?