

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Latitude and Climate

Across

3. Seasons are caused by the _____ of the Earth's axis.

4. High latitudes receive _____ sunlight than places with low latitudes.

9. The tundra might also be known as the "_____ desert" because both biomes receive similar amounts of precipitation.

11. Like temperature, patterns of rain shift with the _____.

12. When North America is experiencing summer, Australia is experiencing _____.

13. True or false: The Earth is tilted exactly 23.5 degrees.

Down

1. True or false: The highest rainfall totals occur near the poles.

2. A biome that is always warm and receives lots of precipitation.

5. The Earth is divided into two hemispheres: Northern and _____.

6. CHALLENGE! A biome, common in California, that has wet winters and dry summers.

7. Polar ice _____ sunlight, further reducing the heat of the Sun on the poles.

8. This part of the Earth always receives direct sunlight.

10. Places with higher latitudes have _____ climates due to the amount of sun it receives.