

Name: _____

Date: _____

Leadership, Management, and Followership

Across

2. _____ styles build positive work environments which include visionary, coaching, affiliative, and democratic leadership.
5. A process where one person influences others to achieve goals.
7. The process of attaining one's individual goals by being influenced by a leader participating in individual or group effort.
8. Based upon the relationship between the leader's supportive and directive behaviour, and between the follower's level of development.

9. Proposes three leadership behaviours such as transformational, transactional, and nontransactional laissez-faire.
10. A core idea of _____ leadership is that a leader knows self.
11. _____ is a behaviour found in autocratic leadership style.
12. A leadership style that is based on reward and punishment for accomplishing goals is known as _____.

Down

1. A process where one or more persons with formal authority in an organization direct the activities of others to achieve goals.

3. This leadership style is inspirational and based on motivating followers to achieve a high level of performance.
4. _____ leadership involves the leader exhibiting personal risk and confidence in the outcome of the vision as well as unconventional behaviour that builds trust and commitment.
6. A leadership style that may create conflict, includes pace setting and commanding styles.