

Learning approaches: Key words crossword

Across

3. Who designed a study to examine the role of a model on influencing an observer's behaviour?
4. What is it called when an individual imitates their role model?
10. What is it called when a person learns through observing the consequences of other people's behaviour?
11. What occurs after observation but before imitation?

13. Who proposed Classical conditioning as a theory of learning?

14. What is the term used to describe when an individual observes a behaviour from a role model and copies it?

Down

1. What is the term when an individual is influenced by another person because they want to be like them or are in some ways similar?
2. What does tabula rasa mean?
5. What scientific piece of apparatus did a behaviourist use?

6. What type of behaviour produces a desirable consequence?

7. What type of reinforcement does not give us immediate gratification but can be exchanged for something that does?

8. What type of reinforcement is immediately gratifying?

9. What is the abbreviation for the social learning theory?

12. What type of conditioning is learnt through reinforcement and punishment?