

Name: _____

Date: _____

Legal Crossword

Across

3. the most common remedy in a civil claim an amount of money that the court orders one party to pay to another

5. a party who makes a legal claim against another person in court

8. breaking or failing to fulfil a duty or obligation

10. an application to have a higher court review a ruling made by a lower court

12. the direct relationship between one event and another event where event 1 was the reason event 2 happened

Down

1. a type of harm or damage suffered by a person and can involve both economic and non-economic loss

2. a type of tort which involves a breach of a duty of care causing loss or harm

4. a party who is alleged to have breached a civil law and who is being sued by plaintiff

6. a type of tort involving interference or intrusion of a persons property or goods without the the consent of that person

7. a type of tort which involves interference with a persons rights to use and enjoy property

9. an area of law that defines the rights and responsibilities of individuals groups and organisations in society and regulates private disputes

11. to take civil action against another person claiming they infringed some legal right of plaintiff