

Legal Revision

Across

9. Factors such as parents, religion, cultural heritage, education, peers can all be factors to what influence?
10. Australia has adopted the traditional British system of law, this has had a strong influence on our society and legal system. What influence is this?
11. what laws are made through decisions of the court, also referred to as judge-made law
13. what type of law is passed by parliament that can cover any topic?

Down

1. What is made up of 128 sections which set out the basic principles and aspects of government in Australia?
2. what power makes the laws (eg. qld parliament)
3. what power interprets and adjudicates upon the law (judges)
4. what power administers the law? (executive government)
5. Your parents and guardians and school etc make decisions about your safety and needs . these decisions are called what?

6. What is the influence that the governing party has on the law?
7. lawmakers can be influenced by factors such as inflation, interest rates and stock markets. What influence is this?
8. Bullying, divorce, same sex marriage, driving, discipline and children are all examples of areas in which changes have occurred because of what influence
12. Decisions that regulate how we use our roads, how we sell goods etc. what decisions are these?