

Name: _____

Date: _____

Legal Studies - Unit 3

Across

1. An act that commenced in 1901 to formalise federation
4. The Queen's representative
7. A government chosen by the people
8. Which government is responsible for matters concerning the whole nation
11. Leader of the state government
12. Process of dissolving of both houses of parliament
16. Which government is responsible for libraries and rubbish collection
17. Required for a successful referendum
18. A government kept accountable by people and the parliament
23. A regulation made by the government

26. Power to interpret and apply the law

27. Leader of the federal government

28. Power to put the law into action

29. Which government is responsible for libraries and rubbish collection

30. The principles of fairness and due process

31. Power to make the law

Down

2. Lower house of federal parliament

3. Two house parliament

5. A vote to change the Constitution

6. The doctrine that the arms of government cannot overlap

9. The legal system adopted for Australia when the earlier settlers came

10. Power to make the law

13. Which government is responsible for matters concerning Queensland only

14. Power to interpret and apply the law

15. The court that deals with Constitutional interpretation

19. A government that did not win more than 50% of the seats

20. Upper house of federal parliament

21. Power to put the law into action

22. Which government is responsible for matters concerning Queensland only

24. One house parliament

25. Which government is responsible for matters concerning the whole nation