

Name: _____

Legal and Ethical Responsibilities

Across

2. 2 kinds, physical; unnecessarily exposing an individual and informational is revealing personal information about an individual without consent
4. written statement detailing a person's desires regarding their medical treatment when they are no longer able to express informed consent
6. permission granted voluntarily by a person who is of sound mind after the procedure has been explained
10. does not have the legal capacity to form a contract
15. behavior known as crime; deals with the wrongs against a person, property or society
16. agreement between two or more parties
18. any care that results in physical harm, pain, or mental anguish
19. commonly called professional negligence, failure of a professional to use the degree of skill and learning commonly expected
20. failure to give care that is normally expected

Down

23. authorized or based on law
24. false and damaging statements about someone
25. stated in distinct and clear language language either verbally or writing
26. restraining an individual or restricting an individual's freedom without authorization
28. false statements either cause a person to be ridiculed or damage the person's reputation
29. contains information about the care provided to the patient
30. document permits an individual to appoint another person to make any decisions regarding health care if the person is not able to do it themselves

Across

7. set of principles relating to what is morally right or wrong
8. focuses on the legal relationships between people and the protection of a person's rights
9. list of guarantees for those receiving medical care
11. obligations understood without verbally expressed terms
12. written policies concerning the factors of care that patients can expect to receive
13. threat or attempt to injure and unlawful touching of another person without consent.
14. information about a patient that must remain private and can be shared with only other members of the patients' health care team
17. final important consideration in contract law
21. a US law designed to provide privacy standards to patients' medical records
22. wrongful act that does not involve a contract
27. ensure patients right to independence in health care decisions be communicated and protected