

Legislation

Across

7. All businesses that offer goods and services on credit

9. A disagreement between the employer and the employee

12. The main aim of this Act is to promote/protect the economic interests of consumers by providing them information so that they make informed choices

13. This Act was introduced to promote simple procedures for the resolution of labour disputes in the workplace.

14. It is formed by registered trade unions and employer organisations in order to prevent/resolve labour disputes.

15. Negotiations between employers' association and trade unions on matters such as wages/conditions of employment.

16. The main aim of this Act is to ensure that equal job opportunities are given to all people regardless of race/culture/language/age/religion/disability etc.

Down

1. It was introduced to ensure that businesses contribute to the development of skills of employees.

2. This Act sets the minimum standard for employment in order to promote fair labour practice.

3. The main aim of this Act is to improve the skill levels of people who are already employed in the business.

4. It was designed to ensure that suitable and qualified previously disadvantaged individuals are given equal job opportunities.

5. established in order to implement and monitor the implementation of the Skills Development Act.

6. Agreement between the employer organisations and trade unions.

8. The Act was introduced in order to ensure full economic participation of previously disadvantaged individuals.

10. This Act was introduced to protect consumers against unfair and reckless credit granting by businesses.

11. The Act gives employees who are injured or contract diseases while on duty the right to claim compensation.