

Name: _____ Date: _____

Lesson 1: What is Zoology?

Across

2. Places animals live is called a _____
4. Families are divided into a group called _____
6. The preserved remains of creatures that were once alive are called _____
7. After being divided into phyla, the animals in each phylum are further divided into groups called _____
8. Each class is further divided into _____
10. What group are all animals first put into?

12. What is the special gift God has given to all the creatures of the earth?
13. Each animal in the Animal Kingdom group is put into a smaller group called a _____
14. Animals that have backbones are often called _____
16. When something can travel through the air without a lot of drag, we say that it has an _____ shape
17. The pressing of air against you is called _____

Down

1. What is it called when an animal blends into its habitat and it's hard to see?
3. What is a scientist who studies animals called?
5. Scientists divide the animals in a genus into different _____
9. Each order is divided into a smaller group called a _____
11. What is the force called that tends to slow a flying creature or object?
15. When a bird flaps its wings, the wings provide a force that makes the bird go faster. This is called _____