

Lesson 22

Across

7. To study human culture, beliefs, and physical history

8. The study of the earth's structure and physical history

9. The study of living things

10. The application of science to practical uses

Down

1. The study of crime and criminals

2. The study of human social behavior

3. The study of ancient life by examination of fossils

4. The study of past human life by examination of physical evidence

5. The study of religious questions

6. The study of the origins and parts of the living things, and how they function