

Name: _____

Date: _____

Lesson 2 Vocabulary

Across

2. making or willing to make concessions
 3. having or showing or expressing reverence for a deity
 7. not produced by natural forces
 12. praise, glorify, or honor
 13. cleverly amusing in tone
 14. marked by narrow focus on or display of learning especially its trivial aspects
 15. artfully persuasive in speech
 16. express a negative opinion of
 17. habitually reserved and uncommunicated

18. intellectually productive

19. travel up

21. repeated too often; overfamiliar through overuse

22. known widely and usually unfavorably

24. disclined to work or exertion

25. take to task

Down

1. existing as an independent entity

4. confined to and understandable by only an enlightened inner circle

5. capable of producing offspring or vegetation

6. make worse

8. determined by chance or impulse or whim rather than by necessity or reason

9. deficient in alertness or activity

10. a constitutional tendency to be gloomy and depressed

11. regard with feelings of respect and reverance; consider hallowed or exalted or be in awe of

20. uttered with unrestrained enthusiasm

23. of a stern or strict bearing or demeanor; forbidding in aspect