

Lesson 6

Across

4. To drink in large quantities; to gulp
 7. The rhythmic flow of an activity, especially marching or dancing
 8. An influential person; a member of an elite group
 10. A lover of books
 12. Bleak; austere

13. An embarrassing public mistake or remark
 14. Deep-seated hostility often mutual
 15. Slightly ill

Down

1. To seize property for official use
 2. Gluey; sticky
 3. To resent another's success; to envy

5. To rush forward suddenly, usually from a defensive position
 6. To speak in a dramatic impassioned or blustering manner
 9. Favoritism shown to family or friends by those in power, especially in business or hiring practice
 11. To inspire or influence; to saturate