

Name: _____ Date: _____

Lesson Two Vocabulary

- |  |                  |
|--|------------------|
| 1. a transformation or dramatic change                           | A. vestige       |
| 2. a fight; an uproar  | B. nonchalant    |
| 3. unconcerned; indifferent                                      | C. rife          |
| 4. a trace or evidence of something that once existed            | D. donnybrook    |
| 5. someone who participates in a conversation                    | E. carte blanche |
| 6. strictly disregarding individual differences or circumstances | F. nomenclature  |
| 7. dark and forbidding   | G. metamorphosis |
| 8. a deliberately deceptive or misleading argument               | H. cosmopolitan  |
| 9. boundless authority; unlimited power to act                   | I. brigand       |
| 10. a chant; a recited magical spell                             | J. incantation   |
| 11. worldly; sophisticated                                       | K. stygian       |
| 12. abundant; prevalent  | L. sophistry     |
| 13. technical names or naming system in an art or science        | M. procrustean   |
| 14. a robber or bandit   | N. interlocutor  |
| 15. haughty; scornful  | O. contemptuous  |