

Let's Reviiiiew!

Across

- 1. These lines run east to west.
- 4. Businesses around the world need to communicate, so they agree on a common language that they all know. This is called a _____.
- 12. When WW II soldiers returned from war, they were sure glad to see their wives! This was the result!
- 13. Soccer is the universal example of _____ culture. (along with McDonald's and Coca Cola)
- 14. I'm the most important line of latitude!!
- 16. I don't understand you, you don't understand me. Let's create a language to help us get along.

- 18. China and India is trying to get their population under control with these policies.
 - 19. When a pidgin language gets its wings, and becomes a brand new language.
 - 20. He thought (incorrectly...so far) that our population would outgrow our resources, leading to starvation and death.
- Down
- 2. "Hello everyone" and "Hi y'all" say the same things differently. These are examples of _____
 - 3. This map projection is good for general purposes - pretty good at everything, not great at anything.
 - 5. Texas, or San Antonio, or Houston, or Russia, or any place name!

- 6. The Alamo, Las Palapas, the Riverwalk, La Cantera....they're all part of our cultural _____
- 7. Japan, Denmark, Sweden and France encourage baby-making with these policies.
- 8. The environment is not the boss of us! We can adapt to all kinds of situations!
- 9. These lines run north to south.
- 10. A baby boom results in one of these about 25 years later.
- 11. In language, "the early bird gets the worm" is an example of these.
- 15. Houston is not really just 2 inches from San Antonio. That's just the _____ on the map.
- 17. Cultural no-nos in society.