

Name: _____

Date: _____

Levels of the Ocean, plankton, food chains/webs

Across

2. Aquatic Organisms that drift with the currents or have limited swimming abilities.
3. A nutritional organization of organisms, pertaining to the food chain
7. The extreme depths of this zone are found mostly in deep-water trenches and canyons
8. This zone is the range of depths between the highest and lowest extent of the tides.
9. Organisms that break down living or dead material into chemicals that can be recycled as nutrients

Down

1. Deepest know part of the ocean
4. Organisms that convert light energy into chemical energy and appear at the base of the trophic pyramid
5. This type of plankton is animal plankton ranging from microscopic sea stars to huge jellyfish
6. This group of plankton contains chlorophyll and is divided into diatoms, dinoflagellates and some species of algae like blue-green algae
10. Zone with the most visible light and where the most marine animals.