

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Lewis and Clark Expedition

Across

11. She is the 17-year-old, pregnant wife of Toussaint Charbonneau.
12. He wrote in his journal about the expected dangers ahead, including "warlike nations of savages of gigantic stature" and impassable mountain ranges.
13. During the French and Indian War, France surrendered a large part of Louisiana to Spain and almost all of its remaining lands to _____.
17. The name of the rock Clark carved his name and the date on a large rock formation near the Yellowstone River.
18. The estimated miles The Corps had traveled.
19. The Corps of Discovery embarks from Camp _____.
20. When Lewis and Clark met Sacagawea.

Down

1. _____ breakdowns are common during the expedition, given that Lewis and Clark often rely on three-way translation.
2. He dies of a suspected ruptured appendix near modern-day Sioux City, Iowa.
3. The kind of boat Lewis and Clark used at the beginning of their journey.
4. Where Lewis and Clark encountered with Native American tribes.
5. The guardian of Sacagawea's children after she passed.
6. The fort they had to find for the winter before heading home.
7. When the Tense Encounter With the Teton Sioux happened.
8. What president tasked Meriwether Lewis with exploring lands west of the Mississippi River that comprised the Louisiana Purchase.
9. Many of the party suffered from frostbite, hunger, _____, bad weather, freezing temperatures and exhaustion. Still, despite the merciless terrain and conditions, not a single soul was lost.
10. A vital part to Lewis and Clarks survival and success.
14. Lewis studied medicine, botany, astronomy and _____ before the journey began.
15. The year Lewis and Clark returned home and shared their experiences with Jefferson.
16. The year President Jefferson and James Monroe successfully negotiated a deal with France to purchase the Louisiana Territory.