

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Life Science Chapter 12

Across

3. Which does NOT belong with the other three?

5. Planarian

8. brown tube sponge

11. Is the fly classified in phylum Arthropoda?

14. The tiny bristles that an earthworm uses for movement are ____.

15. a tube that transports gases inside insects

16. No invertebrate has a ____.

17. Box jellyfish

18. What characteristic distinguishes earthworms from worms in other worm phyla?

19. Which phylum has the most animal species?

20. What kind of symmetry do flatworms have?

Down

1. A collection of nerve tissue, called a "simple brain," is a ____.

2. A stinging cell of hydra or jellyfish

4. A type of skeleton similar to a water balloon

6. Earthworm

7. Honeybee

9. Animals such as the clam that have two shells hinged together are called ____.

10. the chamber in an earthworm's digestive system that grinds food \during mechanical digestion is the ____.

12. the resting stage of insect development

13. What does an octopus use to move quickly through the water?

Word Bank

hydrostatic

bivalve

Porifera

bilateral

Arthropoda

gizzard

backbone

Arthropoda

nematocysts

nematocysts

Ganglion

trachea

Annelida

segmented body

Platyhelminthes

siphon

setae

Yes

Cnidaria

pupa