

Linear Function Crossword Puzzle

Across

3. A variable whose value does not depend on that of another
4. Where the graph crosses the x-axis
13. A way to solve systems of equations
14. A relation or expression involving one or more variables
15. A ratio between change in one variable relative to a change in another variable
16. A measure of steepness of a line
18. An equation that results in a straight line on a graph

19. A relationship between two variables whose graph points to a straight line

20. A predictable rate that a variable change over time

Down

1. A relationship between variables where one is a constant multiple of the other
2. A set of equations with the same variables
5. Describes the relationship between in put and out put
6. The equation of a line were the slope and y-intercept are obvious

7. A way to display functions

8. The number that relates two variables that are direct proportion

9. A variable whose value does depend on that of another

10. Any function that graphs to a straight line

11. A visual way to verify a function

12. A table that describes a function by displaying in put and out put

17. Where the graph crosses the y-intercept