

Literacy term

Across

2. Shows us the opinion or feeling of the individual in the situation.
 3. The voice behind the poem.
 6. A line of poetry composed of trochees.
 8. Consists of the events that occur during the course of that story and the way in which they are presented to the reader.
 12. A main idea or an underlying meaning of a literacy work which may be stated directly or indirectly.
 16. Used to reference another object outside of the work of literature
 17. A short piece of fiction that features animals in the role of protagonist and usually includes or illustrates a moral.
 18. The speaker of a literary text.
 19. A style of speaking or writing determined by the choice of words by a speaker or writer.

20. Uses an extended metaphor or simile that compares two very dissimilar things.
 21. The act of creating and describing characters in literature.
 22. A short didactic story that is meant to teach a moral or principle.
 24. The use of obvious and deliberate exaggeration.
 25. The usage of repeating words and forms to give a pattern and rhythm to a passage.

Down

1. Refers to a word that mimics or resemble the sound of the thing describes.
 4. Any figure of speech use to be more effective, persuasive and impactful which depends on a non literal meaning of some or all of the words use.
 5. The actual definition of the word rather than the nuances of it meanings or the feeling it implies.

7. The repetition of the same consonant sounds at the beginning of words that are close in proximity to each other.
 9. A complete stop or pause in a line of poetry.
 10. Figure of speech in which word or phrase that refers to a part of something substituted to stand in for a whole, vice versa.
 11. A literacy device that can be defined as having two successful rhyming lines in a verse and has the same meter to form a complete thought.
 14. A character or figurative mask that an actor, writer or singer takes on in order to perform.
 15. A comparison between two unlike things through the use of connecting words usually "like" or "as".
 23. A narrative element with symbolic meaning that repeats throughout a work of literature.