

Name: _____ Date: _____

Literary Device Crossword

Across

3. The struggle between opposing forces
6. A difficult decision that a character has to make
8. Hints to suggest a future event
9. A comparison between to seemingly unlike things (does not use like or as)
11. Descriptive writing that appeals to the 5 sense and helps the reader to visualize the story
13. A feeling of anticipation or excitement about an unexpected outcome

14. A comparison that uses like or as

16. A work that tells both a literal and figurative story
17. The main character of a narrative
19. The turning point of the story
21. Giving an inanimate object human characteristics

Down

1. A person, place, thing, or event that stands for itself and represents something beyond itself
2. The perspective from which a story is told

4. When the audience knows more than the characters

5. The method an author uses to develop a character
7. The feeling created in the reader by a literary work
10. The person or character who tells the story
12. A category, kind, or type of literature
15. The author's message
18. Time and place of the action in a story
20. When the opposite of what is expected to happen occurs