

Literary Devices

Across

3. when a writer gives a hint about something that will happen later
 6. Addressing a 3rd party: inanimate object, dead person, etc.
 8. comparing two different things with some similar characteristics
 12. A comparison that does NOT use like or as.
 14. implied meaning of a word; can be positive or negative
 15. writing that is heavy with adjectives and imagery; does not necessarily tell a story
 16. a tone that does NOT show bias

17. the writer's attitude toward a subject

18. "Letting someone go" instead of saying they are fired is an example of...
 19. A reference to another book, play, movie, etc.
 23. recurrence of initial consonant sounds

24. A word like "BAM," or "POW"

Down

1. a sense of vagueness that can be interpreted in many different ways
 2. the main idea
 4. Extreme exaggeration
 5. writing that tells a story and has a plot

7. giving human qualities to something NOT human

9. literal definition of a word

10. A statement that is self-contradictory but contains an element of truth

11. making a logical conclusion based on information presented

13. writing that is purely informational

20. "He smokes like a chimney" is an example of...

21. When the opposite happens of what is expected

22. "It's raining cats and dogs" is an example of...