

Name: _____

Date: _____

Literary Devices

Across

1. figure of speech that refers to a well-known story, event, person, or object

4. when a character speaks aloud to himself (and to the audience), thereby revealing his inner thoughts and feelings

9. an author indirectly hints at what's to come later on in the story.

11. the author's attitude towards his/her writing

13. a comparison without using "like" or "as"

15. A genre that tells only about a certain period of time or about a certain story arc of the author's life

18. the atmosphere of a work of literature

19. when an author describes a scene, thing, or idea so that it appeals to our senses

20. giving human like qualities to inanimate objects

Down

2. the art of persuasion

3. a worn out word or phrase

5. when the audience knows something the characters in the story do not

6. the perspective from which a story is seen or told

7. word (or group of words) that represents a sound and actually resembles or imitates the sound it stands for

8. using two contradictory terms together

10. a comparison using "like" or "as"

12. an exaggeration

14. a word or phrase is repeated at the beginning of multiple sentences throughout a piece of writing

16. any person, object, or action that has additional meaning beyond itself

17. a repeated image, symbol, or theme throughout a work of literature