Name: _____   Date: _____

Literary Elements

Across

1. Usually the main character; the good guy

4. Giving a non-human thing a human quality

7. Occurs at the beginning of a story and introduces the characters, setting, and the conflict

10. The turning point in a story

12. When and where the story takes place

13. The action or sequence of events in a story

14. Extreme exaggeration

15. Repeating the beginning consonant sound

16. Events that lead to the resolution

17. The bad guy; usually in conflict with the protagonist

Down

2. Events that increase the tension in a story

3. Words that represent a sound

5. Says one thing means another

6. The reason an author writes

8. Compares two things without using like or as

9. Compares two things using like or as

11. The final outcome