

Literary Elements Vocabulary

Across

- 2. the outward struggle between a character and another character, nature, or society
- 5. the opposing character or force in a story that is against the main character
- 6. when the audience knows something that the characters do not
- 7. a comparison in which an idea or a thing is compared to another idea to another idea or thing that is quite different.
- 8. the writer reveals the personality of the character through actual words in literature

- 10. the process by which the personality of the character is revealed through the characters speech, actions, and appearance using inference
- 11. a reference to something from a known field or area that readers would recognize and connect with while they are reading
- 13. an expression that is clear only to those who are familiar with the language of its origin and cant be understood based on its literal meaning
- 14. an event that happens that is completely opposite of what was expected to hapen

- 15. a literary or dramatic character who undergoes as important inner change, as a change in personality or attitude

Down

- 1. a literary or dramatic character who does not change throughout the course of the literature
- 3. the inward conflict between a character and himself/herself
- 4. when something spoken is not what what you really mean ; sarcasm
- 9. the underlying meaning of a story that the writer wants to learn
- 12. the main character in a story plot